doopsgezind WereldWerk is an agency for peace, relief and sustainable development of the Mennonite Churches in the Netherlands.
The earth is the LORD's, and everything in it, the world, and all who live in it.

These words are from Psalm 24 and define the vision of doopsgezind WereldWerk. It calls us to promote human transformation, working with the poor and oppressed, seeking peace and justice and bearing witness to the good news of the Kingdom of God.

As ministry of Mennonite churches, we seek to share God’s love and compassion for all, in the name of Christ, by responding to basic human needs and working for peace and justice. Values characterizing our ministry are non-violence, interdependence and sustainability.

We seek to pursue this mission through working with worldwide partners in an integrated and holistic commitment to:

- Promotion of just-peace, that seeks to change unjust structures affecting the poor with whom we work.
- Transformational development that is community-based and sustainable, is focused specifically on health care and the needs of children.
- Partnerships with churches to contribute to spiritual and social transformation.
- Public awareness that leads to informed understanding, giving, involvement and prayer.
- Witness to Jesus Christ by life, deed, word and sign that encourages people to respond to the Gospel.
